History in your Backyard ?

Woodbury
Historical Sites

August Miller Barn

Woodbury United Methodist Church

Charles Spangenberg Farmstead

Presented by the Woodbury Heritage Society in observance of Woodbury's 50th Anniversary as a city. Discover and learn about Woodbury's rich history from the glacier age, through the rein of Chief Little Crow to the arrival of the Europeans. Twelve notable sites will be open for your examination. To start, pick up your passports and tour maps at the Heritage House - Corner of Radio Drive and Lake. You are on your own; stop at as many or as few as time allows. Be sure you have your passport stamped at each site and make your last site stop the Miller Barn - Valley Creek and Settler's Ridge. Check in there at "Passport Control" for your passport rewards—including ice cream, cake, beverages and valuable coupons. For those families with more than seven stamped passport sites, a special prize.
